Men who go out fishing in an open boat in the midst of a blinding storm and enjoy it, must be strong and healthy and are pretty sure to live to a ripe old age. Unfortunately, the rush and hurry of modern business life will not permit the average man to take frequent outdoor exercise.

In lieu of a life spent partly in the woods and on the water a man must find some statue which Mr. Joseph Pulitzer, of New York, presented to the city of Paris, and which now adorns one of the parks of that city.

In shipping a duplicate of the statue a part of the base was omitted and Mr Tayntor, wo is building the Rouss mausoleum for Winchester, Va., has been commissioned to make the statue ready for formal presentation this fall. The statue will be placed in a prominent position in Morningside Park, which is on the west side of New York, beyond Cen tral Park. It is expected that at the unveiling of the Rouss statue there will be public speakers of national reputation.

In licu of a life spent partly in the woods and on the water, a man must find some kind of medicine to tone up and invigorates him and incite the vital organs of his body to the faithful performance of their normal functions. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the only thoroughly effective medicine for this purpose. Its principal action is upon the organs that feed the blood, the stomach the large intestines and the liver. It facilitates the flow of the discovery is the only thoroughly effective medicine for this purpose. "I had catarrh for several years and then the grip and also had a hemorrhage from the university." I had the best medical attention, but it could bring only partial relief. I had more hemorrhages. I took twenty-five or thirty bottles of medicines, but continued to have spells of bleeding. I commenced taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Dr. Sage's Cafarrh Remedy. I used eight bottles and have been able to do any kind of labor for more than twelve mouths. I owe my life to Dr. Pierce's medicines,"
